

Hometown Heroes Youth Leader Award

Steve Bloodsworth

Steve Bloodsworth is a teacher, preacher and in charge of the summer program at Open Bible Academy. Mr. Steve, as the kids know him, goes above and beyond with each child. He takes them in as if they were his own. He guides them and teaches them the right things to do and how they should behave. The children love him and look up to him.

He has been the principle of Open Bible Academy for over 30 years, leading with discipline as well as much love. OBA students are among the smartest and most respectful children that you will ever meet. Steve makes sure that they succeed academically, socially and spiritually. His is a mentor, leader and educator, and a Hometown Hero.

Congratulations to Our Hometown Heroes!
