

Thomas Funeral Home Faith and Spiritual Leader Award

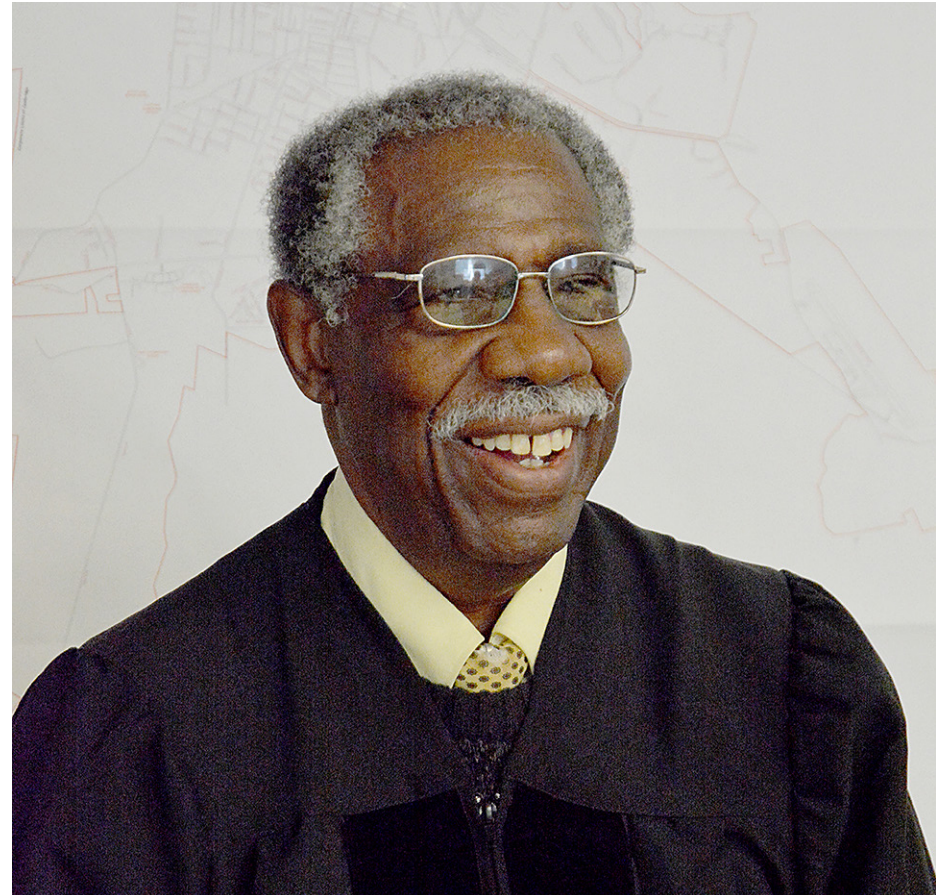

Pastor George Ames

The Rev. George Robert Ames Jr. has Pastored Wesley Chapel Church from 2004-present. Under his leadership, Wesley Chapel Church received the Heart of Chesapeake County Heritage Outstanding Organization Award for ongoing restoration of Church building with donations of money, labor and church offerings with a small congregation. Rev. Ames' pulpit consists of a stool and a small stand amidst the Chapel's pews where he delivers his messages, instead of the podium in front of the church.

Pastor Ames writes weekly guest commentaries in the Dorchester Banner, inspiring hope, unity, and encouragement and serving others. He likes to say, "I want them to be in better shape when I leave than when I came."

Always in pursuit of more learning, Pastor Ames has the following earned degrees: AA degree Humanities/ Social Science, AA degree in Law Enforcement, AA degree in Ministry and a Doctor of Ministry degree with a concentration in Leadership and Management.

Pastor Ames served honorably in the United States Air Force from 1960-1966 during the Vietnam Era, and in current times he serves as a Character Counts Coach at Sandy Hill Elementary School, a judge on the Orphan's Court, and a Chamber of Commerce executive. He is a prominent, positive spiritual role model in Dorchester community, and to this community he is a Hometown Hero.
